MILWAUKEE POLICE REPORT WEEKEND CRUISING CRACKDOWN 33 ARRESTS, 17 VEHICLES TOWED

In continuing to send a strong message to those who engage in "cruising," Milwaukee Police report dozens of arrests and the towing of 17 vehicles.

This past weekend, Milwaukee Police arrested 33 people on 42 city charges and four state charges. Included in those charges are 21 city warrants and two state warrants. Police issued 124 traffic citations, 59 parking citations and ordered 17 vehicles towed. Those arrested range in age from 14 to 40.

"We want people to know if they are going to engage in this type of disruptive activity we will arrest you, we will cite you and if we are able, we will take your car," said Milwaukee Police Chief Nannette Hegerty. "Our directed patrol mission to stop this 'urban anarchy' will continue until people get the message that we are serious about taking their cars and taking them to jail when they engage in illegal activity."

The deployment of Milwaukee Police Officers for the cruising patrol mission will continue through the Fall.
